National Institute of Development Administration
Application for Admission to Master of Arts Program in Communication Arts and Innovation (English Program)
Special Program (Weekend Program)
Semester 2, Academic Year 2021

National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA) is accepting applications for the Master of Arts Program in Communication Arts and Innovation (English Program) Special Program (Weekend Program) for semester 2, academic year 2021.

1. Qualifications of Applicants

1.1 Applicants must hold a Bachelor's Degree in any field from an accredited academic institution either in Thailand or another country.

If an applicant has graduated from a university in another country, the applicant must obtain a Letter of Confirmation on Standard Curriculum for Bachelor's Degree from the Commission on Higher Education, Ministry of Education. This letter can be obtained by submitting a request along with a copy of a complete transcript directly to the Bureau of Standards and Evaluation at the Commission on Higher Education, Ministry of Education.

1.2 Applicants must be proficient in communicating in English throughout the program. English language proficiency must be attested through official TOEFL or IELTS test scores of at least 550 or 6 respectively. TOEFL/IELTS test scores must not be older than 2 years at the time of application. Alternatively test results of NIDA internal language proficiency tests, organized by the Graduate School of Language and Communication, are also accepted (please contact Khun Phanuwat Phumisart at (66) 2727 3147, phanuw.p@nida.ac.th for further information).

Exceptions from the need to provide English language proficiency scores are granted only for native English speakers, or applicants that have obtained their bachelor's degree from international academic institutions where English was the medium of instruction and study. Proper proof is required.

1.3 Applicants must have at least one year work experience as of January 9, 2022.

1.4 Applicants must be able to devote sufficient time to their studies and research as required by the syllabus.

NIDA reserves the right to examine documents and qualifications of an applicant at any time. If it is found that an applicant does not meet the required qualifications, and acceptance has already been given, the announcement of acceptance shall be cancelled.

The Institute may not offer any of the programs of study as specified in the curriculums in any given semester depending on the number of enrollees and may therefore resume the program in a subsequent semester.

The Institute reserves the right to make adjustments relating to the admission schedule, tuition fees, and programs of study without prior notice.

Note: The program holds the right to move applicants to the next semester if the number of qualified applicants is below 10 persons.
